Reagent(s):

Dear ,

The Ludwig Institute for Cancer Research Ltd. (the 'Institute') is willing to provide _____ (the 'Recipient') through Applied Biological Materials Inc. with certain reagents listed above (said reagent and progeny thereof being referred to herein collectively as the 'Reagents') for internal research use upon the terms and conditions set forth herein:

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. The Reagents furnished to the Recipient pursuant to this letter agreement and Derivatives thereof (including but not limited to recombinant constructs, cultures, subcultures, mutations or other products derived directly from the Reagents, referred to herein as the 'Derivatives') will be maintained within the Recipient's sole possession and control and will be used solely by the Recipient's Investigator(s) for internal research purposes. The Reagents and any Derivatives will only be used by the Investigator(s) and his staff in laboratory animals or in vitro experiments, will not be used in therapy involving humans and will not be distributed for commercial purposes. The Reagents and any Derivatives will not be distributed, transferred or sold by Recipient or the Investigator(s) and his or her staff to any third party (including other investigators employed by Recipient) for any purposes whatsoever without the prior written consent of the Institute.

2. The Reagents, and any information relating to the Reagents that may be disclosed to the Recipient by the Institute (the 'Information') are being provided to and accepted by your institution WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR ANY OTHER WARRANTY, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED. The Institute and its directors, officers, employees or agents assume no liability and make no representation in connection with the Reagents or the Derivatives or the Information or their use by the Investigator(s) or Recipient. Recipient hereby agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Institute and its directors, officers, employees and agents from and against any liability or claim arising from any use of the Reagents or the Derivatives by the Investigator(s). Without limiting the foregoing, the Institute makes no representations as to testing of the Reagents for the presence or absence of any pathogens and the Investigator(s) and Recipient assume all risk of harm with respect to any such pathogens.
3. The Reagents are being provided at no cost for the Recipient, for internal research purposes only, subject to section 1. Additional costs such as the purchase price for the cell-lines under the purchase agreement with Applied Biological Materials Inc., handling, package and shipping fees will be separately invoiced by Applied Biological Materials Inc.
4. Title to the Reagents and patent rights and other proprietary rights therein are retained by the Institute. No right or license is granted with respect to the Reagents, any Derivatives or the Information except as expressly set forth herein.
5. The Recipient will own any results, data or intellectual property that may be generated by the use of Reagents or Derivatives, where such results, data or intellectual property do not contain the Reagents or Derivatives.
6. Any publication referring to the Reagents, any Derivatives or the Information shall contain a reference, when appropriate, to the relevant publication describing the Reagents and to the Institute as the source of the Reagents.
7. All matters affecting the interpretation, validity and performance of this letter agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

Very truly yours,

LUDWIG INSTITUTE FOR CANCER RESEARCH LTD.
